

- Name: Recent updates and position of CCS in the Baltic states
- Objective: Stimulate and continue the discussion on the current situation and the next steps for the development of carbon capture and storage (CCS) in the Baltic states.
- Date: March 1st, 14:00 – 16:15 (EET)
- Format: Online event
- Participants: Invited / interested stakeholders from the Baltic states and the surrounding region

Agenda:

Time	Topic	Presenter
14:00 – 14:15	Recent developments and the next steps in the CCS4CEE project	Representatives of Civitta
14:15 – 14:30	Recent trends and policy development regarding CCS at the European and regional levels	Eve Tamme – Chair of the Zero Emissions Platform
14:30 – 14:45	The perspective of SCHWENK Latvija on CCS	Evita Gosa - Environmental and Legal Director and Management Board Member at SCHWENK Latvija
14:45 – 15:00	The perspective of Klaipedos Nafta on CCS	Justinas Jazbutis – Project Manager at Klaipedos Nafta
15:00 – 15:15	Progress in industry research: Kaunas University of Technology	Mayur Pal – Professor at the Faculty of Mathematics and Natural Sciences at the Kaunas University of Technology
15:15 – 15:30	Progress in industry research: University of Latvia	Maris Klavins – Professor at the Faculty of Geography and Earth Sciences at the University of Latvia
15:30 – 16:15	Discussion about further cooperation possibilities	Moderated by Ervinas Škikūnas – Associate Partner at Civitta Lithuania

For more information, please contact the organizers by e-mail: valts.ulmanis@civitta.com